

Teacher brainstorm! Cross curricular ideas for Noah and the Ark

- art work
- oceans and seas
- natural materials to create ark
- floating and sinking
- technologies - building boats
- water cycle
- music/singing - sounds of animals
- discussion questions
- reading the story themselves
- maths - footprints of animals and measure them
- collecting water - measurement
- PE - animal movements
- drama/reinact the story
- H and W - determining the rules
- geography - natural habitats/environments
- break up white light into rainbows
- floating and sinking
- rainbow colour hunt
- sound picture
- measuring size of ark
- counting in 2s, pairs, odds and evens
- handling data - favourite animals
- make class rules
- discussion on sharing and cooperation
- boat building - how many animals can your boat carry?
- Matching pairs - animals
- Learn about evaporation - chalk mark round a puddle to mark original size, then watch it dry up.
- Colour mixing - primary colours to secondary colours
- percussion - sound story
- art - rainbow pictures etc
- sequencing the story
- poetry - written in a raindrop
- create own animal
- clay animals
- feelings - respect
- filming story - live learning
- animation of story
- comic strip/storyboard
- phonics (Ar)
- rainmaker
- survival